Our activity

Save By Booking owns this website and manages its centralized marketing platform (which includes this Website, mobile applications and others) where we activate for our local affiliates and CULTIVATORS - TRANSFORMERS of food products selected by us (collectively: "SELLERS ") the possibility of inserting BIO food products and assimilable into genre suitable to be managed with LOT sales after reaching a LOT of purchase equal to an optimal production LOT. As a platform provider, we make possible and facilitate reservations and subsequent transactions to a possible PURCHASE ACTIVATION. If you make a purchase from a seller displayed on our Website, your own rights and obligations related to the purchase are subject to the terms of sale of the CULTIVATOR - TRANSFORMER.

We never act as a buyer and never as a direct cultivator. We provide a place to make reservations and where the CULTIVATORS-TRANSFORMERS can expose their offers and if the lot has been reached within the defined time frame: conclude transactions for which we receive and process payments. Consequently, the contract relating to the purchase of BIO FOOD PRODUCTS at the time of ACTIVATION OF THE PURCHASE, will be concluded exclusively between the CUSTOMER and the CULTIVATOR-TRANSFORMER.

At the moment when the CUSTOMER purchases a BIO FOOD PRODUCT, a contract will be concluded between the CUSTOMER and the company that from time to time directly provides the BIO FOOD PRODUCTS ("SELLER") (see the terms and Sale Terms of the CULTIVATOR - TRANSFORMER for further details attached to the purchase itself). The CULTIVATOR-TRANSFORMER will be responsible for the sale, shipping and handling of any claim from the buyers or any other problem arising from or connected to the contract between CUSTOMER and CULTIVATOR-TRANSFORMER, even if Save By Booking as PROMOTER will be able to intervene to facilitate the resolution of all the problems that may arise.

Terms and conditions of use of the bio.savebybooking.com platform

Our commercial policy

Save By Booking mission is to connect directly CUSTOMERS (Consumers) and CULTIVATORS-TRANSFORMERS (Sellers) with a BOOKING (Reservation) logic before the cultivation-production-programming, to reach a LOT (N. / Quantity of Products) of purchase in order to offer the best PRICE-QUALITY RATIO eliminating a whole series of waste and optimizing energy and resource savings during cultivation, production, transport, marketing and storage activities.

All this is possible thanks to a dynamic marketing method, which with a system of self-promotion rewards the first CUSTOMERS who favor the dissemination of offers. By grouping a certain number of purchases, equal to an optimal cultivation-production LOT, it becomes possible to implement significant savings and transfer these advantages to the consumers themselves, favoring the qualitative contents of the products. The goal of Save By Booking is to offer a website where CUSTOMERS can RESERVE and purchase BIO FOOD PRODUCTS according to the previously illustrated methods, in the real respect of an eco-friendly world, without wasting energy and resources. As a CUSTOMER we mean every subject interested in using bio.savebybooking.com for research and possibly to make RESERVATIONS and / or PURCHASES of FOOD PRODUCTS offered on the WEBSITE itself. Otherwise, Save By Booking will have the right not to take into account RESERVATIONS / PURCHASES on bio.savebybooking.com coming from subjects who do not use the Website in an appropriate way.
